

MADISON MILLER WINS BIG AT CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW

National Ranch and Stock Horse Alliance, Guthrie, Oklahoma — Madison Miller of Bryan, Texas, captured the All-Around Limited Youth National Championship at the inaugural National Ranch and Stock Horse Alliance (NRSHA) National Championship Show held in conjunction with the Zoetis AQHA Versatility Ranch Horse (VRH) World Championship Show at the Lazy E in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Madison rode Cee Hickory Doc, a bay gelding owned by her grandfather, Kenny Dickerson, also of Bryan. In addition to winning the All-Around, the duo captured the national championship and a VRH championship in youth ranch trail.

Nearly 725 entries competed in ranch trail, ranch reining, ranch riding, ranch cutting, ranch boxing and ranch cow work at the event. Throughout the week, more than $62,000 in cash and prizes were awarded.

The newly formed National Ranch and Stock Horse Alliance is comprised of six ranch/stock horse associations – East Coast Stock Horse Association, National Versatility Ranch Horse Association, Oklahoma Stock Horse Association, Stock Horse of Texas, Western States Versatility Ranch Horse Association and the American Quarter Horse Association.

NRSHA classes were held concurrently with the Zoetis AQHA Versatility Ranch Horse World Championship Show classes. More information about NRSHA can be found at www.ranchhorse.net.

Photo credit: The American Quarter Horse Journal